

Frequently Asked Questions

Choose which answer you think correct, noting the letter. Your ten letters may form a message ...

1 What is Pig Dyke?

- m) a meandering stream constantly alive to the sound of humming birds and hovering cherubim
- i) a drainage ditch between Yaxley and Stanground
- b) American for a gay police officer

2 Why does Pig Dyke Molly wear black and white?

- o) our research led us to study photos from the early twentieth century
- n) we can't cope with choice
- a) the Fens is backward and colour hasn't yet arrived

3 Who/what is Molly?

- n) it is derived in part from 18th century transvestites
- c) the most fun you can have with black and white clothes on
- g) a fabulous girl

4 Why a Boss in a Frock?

- o) see 3.n) above
- r) due to a 'wardrobe malfunction'
- o) his mother-in-law gave it to him and he daren't NOT wear it

5 What is Pig Dyke's contribution to the draining of the Fens?

- c) draining the water from Folksworth to the old cut of the Nene
- e) identifying the importance of the invention of the Plughole
- f) drinking as much Elgoods as we can

6 What is the connection between William Shakespeare and Pig Dyke Molly?

- h) witches inspire both
- d) we both entertain groundlings
- c) much ado about nothing

7 Where do the dances come from?

- r) they are based on our careful research into traditional Molly dances
- i) we work on them together to bring Molly dancing into the twenty first century
- h) we make them up as we go along

8 Who was Ethel?

- o) landlady of the Plough in Farcet Fen
- b) a woman who loved cats
- i) a woman who fed her cats in more ways than one

9 What is it about Pondersbridge?

- m) its intense thought that occurs when people cross the dyke in the village
- l) its contribution to the history of world time-keeping
- p) you might as well study the bridge, all the pubs are gone

10 Turpitude is?

- d) significant if you want to enter the USA
- e) a substance which comes in either moral or immoral forms
- s) useful for cleaning paint brushes

Words you may get include MONOCHROME, INCREDIBLE, BAG OF CHIPS or even MAGOCCIONE...if you know what any of these have to do with Pig Dyke Molly let us know!